May 10-14, 2014

WHO ARE WE REALLY?: LATIN AMERICAN FAMILY, LOCAL AND MICRO-REGIONAL HISTORIES AND THEIR IMPACT ON UNDERSTANDING OURSELVES

You are cordially invited to attend the 59th annual meeting of the Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials (SALALM).

SALALM 59, titled Who Are We Really?: Latin American Family, Local and Micro-Regional Histories and Their Impact on Understanding Ourselves will focus on family, local and micro-regional historical resources and their place in scholarship and how they inform the discussion on genealogical data, racial & ethnic identity and how that perceived identity conflicts with perceptions of governments. In particular, the conference will examine how libraries are discovering, acquiring, organizing, and promoting these historical resources; how scholars are using them to provide context for understanding macro-level socioeconomic, historic and demographic patterns in Latin America; and how interested individuals are using these primary and secondary resources to understand themselves.

Panels will include scholarly presentations related to the conference theme and will also include papers on practical issues of librarianship related to the topic.

Brigham Young University's Harold B. Lee Library will be the host of SALALM LIX.

SALALM LIX, May 10-14, 2014, Salt Lake City, Utah

In 1847, Brigham Young led a group of pioneers to the Salt Lake Valley and pronounced, “This is the right place.” In 1994, Salt Lake City was the right place for SALALM XXXIX. In 2002 the world came to Salt Lake City for the Winter Olympics. It was the right place. In 2014, Salt Lake City is the right place again for SALALM LIX. To learn more about Salt Lake City, please visit www.slctravel.com.

HOTEL: Radisson Hotel Salt Lake City Downtown, 215 W South Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. Phone: 1-801-531-7500. This hotel is fabulously located in the heart of downtown Salt Lake. It is a short 11-minute taxi ride from the Salt Lake City International Airport. The commuter light rail (TRAX) runs right in front of the Radisson and costs $2.50 to and from the Airport. The stop is half a block from the hotel. We have a block of 75 rooms reserved for SALALM LIX: Single and Double, $129; Triple, $139; Quadruple, $149, per night. This conference rate will be available 3 days prior to the conference and 3 days after the conference. All the meeting rooms are available free if we fill up the block of rooms. Please stay at the Radisson. The special conference rate also entitles those who drive a car to park at the hotel for $6.00 per day. To check out the hotel and its amenities and make reservations please visit: <http://www.radisson.com/saltlakecity/salalm>

DINING: The Radisson houses Copper Canyon Grill House & Tavern, a great place to spend time with colleagues and friends. The Radisson is also located midway between two beautiful pedestrian malls that provide dining and entertainment (and shopping, of course). The Gateway is 2 blocks west and includes 14 restaurants. Please visit www.shopthegateway.com for more details. City Creek is 2 blocks east and includes 20 restaurants. Please visit www.shopcitycreekcenter.com for more details.

CONFERENCE: SALALM LIX will mostly take place at the Radisson. All committee meetings and sessions will be located on the 2nd floor. The exhibits will be in Wasatch Rooms 3 & 4, located right next to the meetings rooms. One afternoon, conference participants will travel to the Brigham Young University campus (please visit www.byu.edu and www.lib.byu.edu) and hold a panel in the Harold B. Lee Library auditorium. We will then have the host reception and then travel on to Park City (please visit www.parkcityinformation.org) where participants can spend the evening on their own, walking Park City’s main street and trying out the local restaurants and microbreweries. We will return to Salt Lake

City beginning at 9:30 p.m. The Mormon Tabernacle, home of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, is located very near the hotel. You can take in a broadcast Sunday morning or listen to a rehearsal if you stay around on Thursday. Also close by is the Family History Library.

VISITING UTAH: Utah offers all SALALM LIX participants a rare opportunity to be in the desert, float on a salt lake, climb and hike the Wasatch mountains or visit several National Parks and Monuments. Utah is home to the Little Sahara Sand Dunes, the Great Salt Lake, the Wasatch mountain range (as well as others) which include many national forests and wilderness areas. Additionally, Bryce Canyon, Zion Canyon, Capitol Reef, Canyonlands, and Arches National Parks are all within a day's travel and provide breathtaking scenery and vistas. Also close by are Yellowstone to the north and the Grand Canyon to the south. While you are here, you may want to take advantage of these places and go for a visit. Please visit www.utah.com/nationalparks for more information.
