

Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials

SALALM SCHOLARSHIP for $1,000

Purpose and Overview

Established to encourage professional and leadership development in Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies academic librarianship, the annual SALALM Scholarship of $1000 is for a Master's candidate in an ALA-accredited library and information studies program or in archival studies.

Since its founding in 1956, SALALM has provided the only national and international forum focused on Latin American studies library collections and services. The SALALM Scholarship includes a one-year membership in the organization and eligibility for an award to attend the annual conference.

Who Should Apply

Applicants who demonstrate a strong interest in Latin America, the Caribbean, Iberia or their diasporas and who have career aspirations involving service to users seeking information about, or researching topics involving these areas, are urged to apply. Competency in one of the major languages of the regions is highly important.

Eligibility

Open to Master's degree candidates in ALA-accredited programs in library and information studies or in archival studies in the United States or Canada who have completed successfully at least one quarter or semester of study.
